PELS DOWND SINTON
BY SCORE OF 7 TO 1

Superb Pitching of Harlan With Time-Clothing by the Birds Was Too Much for San Patricio Team. With Harlan pitching superbly, holding the Gladstones to two scratch hits and the Pels putting on one, Mr. Frazier, the Pels' Sunday afternoon, mopped up, with the strong defense, won by a score of seven to one. Clearly it was a demonstration of the fact that Harlan possesses the necessary class to spell success in semi-pro baseball. He was given joyous support by his team mates and at times the hitting of Frazier was quite ferocious.

The one disappointment of the afternoon was the attenuated dimensions of the crowd, less than 300 paying admission at the gate. Fast baseball is none played at League Park by the Gladstones and the team deserves far better patronage than has been accorded thus far.

The Sunday score—
Pels—
Gladstones—
Sinton—
Batteries: Harlan and Conner; Frazier and Caswell.

BASEBALL SUMMARYTHE GIANTS AND*RUSSIANS MUCH ALIKE

Both When Beaten Say 'We Suffered The Loss for Strategic Reasons—Watch Our Smoke.'

THE GIANTS' COMING out of the 1915 campaign with a record of 96 wins and 62 losses, and the Russians with 97 wins and 63 losses, was apparently due to the same cause, and that cause was the same, though the reasons were different.

Both teams had suffered a loss of 10 games, and the Russians had suffered a loss of 11 games.
